

EMS Symposium

“Falls in the Fall”

St. Mary Regional Trauma Center

Attend this free program and receive credits in EMS, nursing, or trauma.

Tuesday, September 14
6 to 8:30 p.m.

Neshaminy Middle School
1201 Langhorne Newtown Road, Langhorne, PA

Topics presented by St. Mary Emergency Medicine experts:

Christopher Haines, DO, FAAP, FACEP,
Emergency Medicine Pediatrics,
Department of Emergency Medicine

- Epidemiology of pediatric falls
- Factors that make children predisposed to falls
- Review of pediatric fall injuries
- Proper management of pediatric falls

Gary Zimmer, MD, FACEP
Chairman, Department of Emergency
Medicine

- Most common fractures associated with adult falls
- Importance of proper fracture care
- Prevention efforts
- Improve patient outcomes after surgery

Dinner is included.

Registration is required by Wednesday, September 1. Please call Lisa Senick at 215.710.5900, or e-mail your name, address, phone number, and squad or department to lсенick@stmaryhealthcare.org.

