

Central Bucks Emergency Medical Services

455 East St, Doylestown, Pa 18901 · 215-348-8380

EMPLOYMENT ANNOUNCEMENT EMERGENCY MEDICAL TECHNICIAN (EMT)

Central Bucks EMS is currently accepting applications for full time and part time EMT(s). Interested EMTs should forward letters of interest, resume, and completed employment applications to Central Bucks EMS, Attention: Scott Henley @ Henley@cbems.org. Applications may also be mailed to the above address.

Interested applicants must meet the following criteria:

- › At least 21 years of age
- › A minimum of two years of 911 experience
- › Current Commonwealth of Pennsylvania EMT Certification
- › Valid Commonwealth of Pennsylvania driver's license, EVOC, and EMSVO qualified
- › Current and maintain CPR certification
- › Completion of ICS: 100, 200, 700, 800
- › Child Abuse Clearance (within the past year)
Go Online to: <https://www.compass.state.pa.us/CWIS>
- › Pennsylvania State Police Criminal History Check (within the past year)
Go Online to: <https://epatch.state.pa.us/NewRecordCheckAction.do?action-new>
- › FBI Fingerprinting
- › University of Pittsburgh – Recognizing and Reporting Child Abuse
Go Online to: www.reportabusepa.pitt.edu

Easily apply at www.cbems.org

CBEMS is located in the heart of Bucks County and is a busy, progressive EMS organization that maintains a high clinical standard and offers competitive pay and benefits.

Central Bucks Emergency Medical Services considers applications for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, veteran status, citizenship, or any other characteristic protected by law.